

Today i want tell you about winter in Russia. It is usually very cold in winter , in this time you choose sitting at home and drinking hot cocoa or playing snowballs, making big snowmen. I like winter very much. I like white snow and white trees and white houses. It is magical time where you can find yourself in charming fairytale due to the snow on the trees and buildings. Streets look like frozen picture from the Christmas postcard. Everything is white and sparkling.

02-03-2016

