

There are a lot of historical places to visit

Devil's tower is an ancient and mysterious monument. It has several curious legends. One of the legends says "... this building for sure was built by Devil, there are notes about this in spiritual direction and that the castle really was besieged by some strong man, whose leg was cut off, and it is still kept on the porch of the church".