Hello boys and girls!

Some people say: “East or West – Home is Best” and “There is no place like home”. Of course, it’s true. So, as we learn English, we must know much about the country of its lovely language. That’s why today we are going to make an exciting journey to all the regions of this wonderful old country – England. You know, one can find any type of scenery in this country and it changes so quickly right in front of your eyes.
