

Self – assessment Traffic light

How are you finding your learning today?

I can do this!

I'm getting there.

I need help!

The graphic features a vertical traffic light on the left with three colored circles: green at the top, yellow in the middle, and red at the bottom. To the right of the traffic light are three text boxes, each with a colored background matching the light above it. The top box is green and contains the text 'I can do this!'. The middle box is yellow and contains 'I'm getting there.'. The bottom box is red and contains 'I need help!'. At the top right, a speech bubble from a cartoon girl asks 'How are you finding your learning today?'. A small cartoon dog is in the bottom right corner.
