

Open the brackets and put the verbs in the right form.

When it (snow), everything will be white.

When spring comes, the rays of the sun (make) the ground warmer.

When winter (come), lakes and rivers will be covered with ice.

In spring forests (be) filled with birds' songs.

When summer (be) over, we will come back to school.

Nature (awaken) when winter is over.

