

Dear Mum,

Greetings from the UK! I am enjoying my cultural holiday very much. I feel so delighted there! I have been at Language Camp for a week and I have done millions of exciting things.

I visited Covent Garden yesterday, the world famous British theatre. Just it was Russian Culture Week here. It's so exciting! I have took the episode of their playing. Today I have been sending it all day, because my internet is not working properly on the phone. I want you to watch this video.

One of these days I will do souvenir shopping. I can buy something special for you.

Have you got any ideas?

Give my regards to aunty Julia. Don't worry about me. Take care!

Love,

Mary
