

Having such an education my great-grandfather became an artilleryman in the regiment artillerie. At the beginning of the War he was a gun – layer, later he became a spotter of the artillery fire.