

My great-grandfather met the Victory at hospital. After the recovery he was sent to another front on the Far East and participated in the Russian-Japanese war. He returned home only in 1946.