

Talent is a gift from God. But it should be constantly developed through hard work and discipline.

