

SABLEFISH

Sabrefish. The body is long and narrow, as if squeezed from the sides, back - from the greyish-green to green-blue, sides are silvery, belly is bright, with pink bloom. Dorsal and caudal fins are gray, others - are yellowish, the upper mouth, rather large. Dwells mainly in the southern regions of Russia.

