

A photograph of a cave wall with ancient drawings. The wall is dark and textured, with various shades of brown, black, and grey. The drawings are faint and appear to be made of a different material or pigment than the surrounding rock. They include several large, dark, irregular shapes that could be animals or abstract forms. The lighting is dim, highlighting the textures and colors of the rock and the drawings.

There are many
legends
about the cave.

In Sugomak cave
ancient drawings
have been found
and no one has been able to read
them yet.
