

Green day

The band was formed in 1987 by Billie Joe Armstrong and Michael Ryan Pritchard , originally called Sweet Children. Then Billie Joe wrote his first song «Why Do You Want Him?». In 1988, the band is joined drummer Al Sobrante , with the advent of which the group changed its name to Green Day.

The first performance took place in Green Day «Rod's Hickory Pit in Vallejo», after which the group began performing in clubs on Gilman Street in Berkeley. In 1989, the band recorded their first EP 1,000 Hours. After that, Billy Joe , unlike Mike , dropped out of school . In 1990 was recorded the second EP Slappy Hours. Both were recorded in the studio Lookout! Records, owned by a friend of Larry Livermore group . He led the group Tre Cool , who took the place of El Sobrante , who left the band for college .

