

City of military glory

May 5, 2011 the city received the honorary title of "City of military glory" for the feats that he showed during the great Patriotic war .

The position of the city during the great Patriotic war was extremely difficult. For protection of the city all inhabitants rose-they dug entrenchments, created groups of defense, protected objects and did everything possible for a victory.