

In Russia many people consider that New Year is a family holiday. But the youth prefers to spend New Year's parties.

In England New Year's Day is not popular. The first of January, New Year's Day, is a big holiday in Scotland.

